

Kara Smith

Counsel

Toronto

ksmith@mccarthy.ca

t. +1 416-601-7679

Bar Admission

Ontario 2010

Law School

Osgoode Hall Law School

Practices

Litigation and Dispute Resolution
Corporate Commercial Litigation
Public Law

Kara Smith is counsel in the Litigation Group in Toronto. She maintains a general litigation practice, with an emphasis on professional negligence, health law, administrative law and privacy.

Kara is involved in medical defence work on behalf of the Canadian Medical Protective Association in both civil and disciplinary contexts. She has represented physicians before the courts, the College of Physicians & Surgeons of Ontario, and the Health Professions Appeal and Review Board.

Kara regularly advises clients with respect to dealing with privacy law breaches, access rights and access to information requests, including representing affected parties before the Information and Privacy Commissioner of Ontario.

Kara obtained her Honours B.A. (first class standing) in Economics and Political Science from Lakehead University in 2006 and was the recipient of the President's Graduation Award. She received her J.D. from Osgoode Hall Law School in 2009 and received recognition for her leadership and public service, including the Dean's Gold Key Award and Student Honour Award.

She is a member of the Law Society of Ontario, the Canadian Bar Association, and the Ontario Bar Association. She is also actively involved in several charitable organizations and is a member of the Board of Directors of the East Toronto Community Legal Services.

Awards & Rankings

Lexpert Special Edition: Agribusiness and Cannabis

Leading Lawyer

