Secured Lending & Project Finance

Liezl is a partner in our Business Law and Financial Services groups in Vancouver. Her practice is primarily focused in the areas of project finance, infrastructure, public-private-partnerships and secured lending. She also has experience with refinancings and other secondary market transactions in respect of completed projects.

Liezl represents a wide variety of clients, including borrowers and lenders, in connection with project finance agreements, secured credit facilities and the development of projects. She also regularly advises developers and lenders in connection with developing and financing renewable energy projects.

Liezl has made huge contributions to our projects and is a very valued member of our project finance team. She is extremely efficient with her time and is a very clear and effective communicator. She is able to represent our best interests in negotiations and documentation in both a firm and respectful way.
