Gina Rogakos is the Senior Director, Professional Resources, Ontario at McCarthy Tétrault. She is responsible for leading associate talent management programs in the region, including recruitment, mentoring, career development and performance management. Gina also oversees the delivery of Toronto student and paraprofessional programs.

Gina is an experienced legal and human resource professional who brings a wealth of knowledge to her role. She practiced civil litigation as an associate and partner at another national Canadian business law firm before focusing her career on talent management. She then oversaw that firm's student and associate programs and took a leadership role in inclusion and diversity initiatives.

From 2015-2017, Gina focused on senior level recruitment at a global executive search firm, where she was a member of the Legal, Compliance and Regulatory practice, responsible for placing legal executives in a broad variety of industries across North America.

Gina holds an LLB from Osgoode Hall Law School and a BA (History) from York University. Gina was called to the Ontario bar in 2000.
