Disputes

Kevan Hanowski is an associate in our Litigation Group. Kevan maintains a general civil litigation practice in which he helps businesses and individuals resolve complex commercial disputes. Kevan has experience with contractual disputes, product liability claims, professional negligence claims, and class action defence. Kevan also has experience with public law matters and has represented and advised clients in judicial reviews of administrative decisions and constitutional challenges to legislation. He has appeared and made submissions at all levels of court in British Columbia.

Kevan regularly devotes time to pro bono matters and recently acted as co-counsel for a public interest intervenor before the Court of Appeal.

In addition to his practice, Kevan is a course coordinator for UBC's Advanced Trial Advocacy course and participates as a mentor in the Martin Family Initiative mentorship program.

Kevan received his J.D. from the University of British Columbia in 2016. During law school, Kevan was a member of the 2014-2015 UBC Gale Cup Moot Team, the Law Students Legal Advice Program, and the UBC Business Law Clinic.

Prior to starting law school, Kevan received a Bachelor of Arts (Hons.) in political science at the University of Alberta.
