Erin O'Callaghan is an associate in our Business Law Group in Vancouver. She maintains a general corporate and commercial practice, including mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance, project finance, capital markets transactions, and corporate governance. She advises clients in a variety of industries, including financial services, infrastructure, mining and transportation.

Her recent experience includes:

- advising Vantage as a member of the successful proponent for the $75 million redevelopment and operation of retail space at the Chicago Midway International Airport;
- advising Aecon Concessions in connection with the L.F. Wade International Airport Redevelopment Project in Bermuda; and
- acting for Parkland Fuel Corporation in connection with its $1.46 billion acquisition of Chevron Canada's downstream fuel business in British Columbia.

Erin obtained her BA (Honours) in History and Communication Studies from McGill University in 2011 and her JD from the Allard School of Law at the University of British Columbia in 2016. Erin joined the firm as a summer student in 2015, and was called to the bar in British Columbia. She is a member of the Law Society of British Columbia and the Canadian Bar Association.
