MT?3

Susan Wortzman is a partner in the Toronto offices of McCarthy Tétrault. She is also the founder of MT>3, a division of McCarthy Tétrault. MT>3 is Canada's leading law firm specializing in e-discovery, information governance and the management of digital information.

Susan's creativity, legal and business acumen, and commitment to innovation and technology ensure her clients receive effective, cutting edge and efficient managed review, e-discovery and information management services. As one of Canada's most respected e-discovery lawyers, Susan is adamant that information need not be a liability, and helps her client understand that their information and documents can be an important asset.

Susan provides advice to clients concerning the management of e-discovery, from preservation, identification, collection, processing, review and production of electronic records. She works extensively with her clients on litigation, tribunal and regulatory matters, including Competition Bureau matters. She also provides advice to clients on information management and technology strategies. Susan and her team work extensively with clients to develop information governance, best practice, guidelines and litigation readiness plans for managing electronic information.

Susan's expertise in e-discovery was developed during her long tenure as a partner at one of Canada's leading litigation firms, where her practice encompassed a broad range of civil litigation, acting for corporate clients, small to mid-sized businesses and individuals in a wide variety of commercial disputes.

A leader in the e-discovery community, Susan served as Chair of the Sedona Canada Working Group from 2006 to 2010, supervising the development of provincial and national guidelines for e-discovery. Susan is a sought-after and frequent lecturer on e-discovery and information governance topics, and is regularly quoted in industry publications and other media. She has written several seminal papers concerning e-discovery and its impact on litigation in Canada. She has also chaired and participated in professional committees that have developed provincial and national reports and guidelines for e-discovery.

Susan is a member of The Sedona Canada Conference Steering Committees, The Sedona Conference, Working Groups 1,6 and 7, the Canadian Bar Association and The Advocates' Society. She is also a member of the Ontario Cabinet - Friends of the Canadian Museum for Human Rights, a Board and Executive Committee Member of Canadian Stage and Chair of their Audience Development Committee. Susan is also a Co-Chair of the Art Toronto Opening Gala Committee and member of the AGO's Curator's Circle Committee.
