Danielle Drolet, Notary, is counsel in our Real Property & Planning Group in Québec City and Montréal with a strong focus in the energy sector.

Danielle acts as legal advisor in commercial transactions such as the acquisition and sale, leasing, co-ownership and development of numerous real estate projects. She has led and participated in the development of multiple wind farms and hydroelectric projects and therefore has extensive experience in transactions, development and contractual matters in the energy sector.

Danielle has vast experience in the drafting of agreements with the government authorities as well as private landowners in the context of the development and construction of real estate projects.

Danielle has spoken at several conferences and lectured on real property title reports at the Board of Notaries advanced course.

She was awarded the title "notaire émérite" in 2018 by the Chambre des notaires, in recognition of her professional excellence and outstanding contribution to the profession.

She obtained her law degree from the Université de Montréal in 1980 and was called to the Board of Notaries of Québec in 1981. She joined McCarthy Tétrault in March 1998.

Danielle is co-author of an article published in April 2007 in the Espace Québec magazine.
