Shane sees the bigger picture when providing clients in high-stakes disputes with practical and results-oriented strategic advice.

Shane is a partner in our Litigation Group in Toronto. His commercial litigation practice focuses on securities litigation, proxy litigation, shareholder disputes, M&A litigation, insider trading, and broker/dealer liability.

Shane assists clients with their most complex and sensitive problems by conducting internal investigations into potential violations of securities law, anti-corruption and bribery legislation, fraud and regulatory breaches. He also has experience in class actions, other commercial litigation, product liability, and professional liability cases in the context of auditors and accountants, physicians, and teachers.

Considered a thought leader on blockchain technology, Shane draws on his past career as an application developer and his deep knowledge of securities law to explain the application, potential and legal consequences of blockchain technology to clients.

Some of his recent notable work includes:

- Caldwell Investment Management Ltd. (Re), 2019 ONSEC 25, representing respondent in resolution of first best execution enforcement proceeding
- BullRun Capital Inc. v. GrowMax Resources Corp., 2019 ABQB 107, representing company in oppression proceeding commenced by dissidents in proxy contest
