A formidable advocate with outstanding courtroom credibility and prowess, Michael skillfully handles the most complex, high-stakes disputes.

Michael Feder, K.C. is a partner in the Litigation Group and a member of the firm's governing Board of Partners. A gifted and highly versatile litigator, he acts in both commercial and public law disputes and practices nationally in the product liability/mass tort and class action fields. He has unparalleled experience defending aggregated cost recovery lawsuits by provincial governments stemming from alleged mass and toxic torts.

"Mike Feder is the best lawyer I have worked with in Canada. Top drawer smart, creative, great judgment, and terrific on his feet. He is the full package. He is also wonderful to work with."

Attorneys as a "Litigation Star" for commercial litigation and product liability and recall cases; ranked in the 2023 edition of The Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory in the areas of corporate commercial litigation, public law litigation, and product liability litigation; and listed in the 2023 editions of Who's Who Legal: Product Liability Defence and Who's Who Legal: Canada. Martindale-Hubbell has given Michael its highest rating: "AV Preeminent".

Michael's expertise is highlighted in Lexpert Special Edition: Litigation, Lexpert Special Edition: Energy, Lexpert Special Edition: Agribusiness and Cannabis, Lexpert Special Edition: Technology and Health Sciences, and Lexpert Special Edition: Mining. He is also singled out in Global Data Review's Top 100 2021 as a "sharp litigator with excellent analytical and communication skills".

"Michael is the best litigator we have ever worked with. His leadership style coupled with the ability to negotiate and litigate is unmatched."

- Client interview, Chambers Canada (2024)

Experienced across industries

Michael works with major international and Canadian companies operating in diverse industries, such as consumer goods, pharmaceuticals, automotive, technology, mining, energy, forestry, financial services, and aerospace. He has handled significant litigation mandates for Philip Morris International, Meta, ING Bank, Endo Pharmaceuticals, JUUL Labs, Navistar, Bosch, Takata, Uber, Huawei, Glencore, Rio Tinto, Newcrest Mining, Masco, lululemon, Enbridge, LifeLabs, Innergex, Pan American Silver, KF Aerospace, Northern Pulp, Vantage Airport Group, the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, and Rothmans, Benson & Hedges.

Clients give Michael superb reviews. According to Chambers Canada, clients "commend his ingenuity" and regard him as "not only a master strategist [but also] an imposing legal advocate in court"; "a very strong advocate" with "a great presence in the courtroom"; "whip-smart and great on his feet"; "exceedingly bright"; "innovative, eager and efficient"; "proactive and on top of his team"; "responsive, professional and creative"; "great to deal with"; and "very insightful and very creative". Who's Who Legal: Canada has described Michael as "revered for his extensive skill and experience". Benchmark Canada has stated that Michael is "unanimously revered" by clients and peers and described him as "the lawyer that everyone in BC is

Accomplished in the courtroom

At the trial level, Michael's work has included complex class action and other aggregated litigation, mass tort and product liability cases, shareholders' disputes, securities litigation, contractual disputes, and constitutional claims. He defended clients in two of the longest trials in Canadian history, including a rare trial of common issues in two consumer class actions. He has litigated cases in the courts of most provinces and territories as well as in the Federal Court. Michael is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, and Benchmark Canada includes Michael on its Top 50 Trial Lawyers in Canada list.

Sources attest to his trial ability, with one interviewee commenting: "He's the full package. A delightful person, but with all the edge. He's willing to push the boundaries and is great on his feet."

- Chambers Canada (2020)

Michael also has extensive experience in appellate litigation. He has acted in 30 Supreme Court of Canada appeals, including as amicus curiae appointed by the Chief Justice of Canada to assist the court. These appeals cut across myriad subjects, including torts, class actions, contracts, trusts, privacy, civil procedure, health, freedom of expression, tax, privilege, freedom of information, standing, religious freedom and administrative law. He was named Appellate Practice Lawyer of the Year in the 2022 and 2024 editions of The Best Lawyers in Canada.

He is a brilliant legal mind and brings keen legal acumen and a real ability to communicate with judges and other counsel.

Respected in the legal community

Michael received Benchmark Canada's award for British Columbia Litigator of the Year in 2023 and 2017 and has been shortlisted for that award in every year since 2015. Canadian Lawyer magazine has also recognized Michael on its list of the Top 25 Most Influential people in the justice system and legal profession nationally.

Michael sits on the National Advisory Committee of the Supreme Court Advocacy Institute, which provides advocacy advice to lawyers arguing Supreme Court of Canada appeals. He is a past Executive Director of the Institute and, since 2011, has served also as an advocacy advisor to the Institute. He previously served for several years on the Law Society of British Columbia's Discipline Committee.

Michael is a Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America.

Michael has acted pro bono in major litigation for an array of local, national and international public interest organizations, including the Federation of Law Societies of Canada, Council of Canadians with Disabilities, British Columbia Civil Liberties Association, HIV & AIDS Legal Clinic Ontario, CACTUS Montréal, Pivot Legal Society, the HIV Legal Network, the Canadian Bar Association, Community Legal Assistance Society and Harm Reduction International. He has also represented the Secretariat of the Joint United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS before the Supreme Court of Canada.

In 2023, Michael received the Canadian Bar Association's Harry Rankin, Q.C. Pro Bono Award in recognition of outstanding pro bono contributions over the course of his career.

Before joining the firm, Michael clerked for Justice Jack Major of the Supreme Court of Canada and for Justices Carol Huddart and Wally Oppal of the Court of Appeal for British Columbia.

While still in his 30s, Michael was appointed King's Counsel by the Minister of Justice and Attorney General for British Columbia. This honorary title recognizes exceptional professional merit, contribution, integrity and character. Michael is one of the very youngest King's Counsel appointees in British Columbia's history.
