Lauren Grimaldi is an e-Discovery Associate in our Toronto office. Her practice is focused on e-Discovery and information governance.

Possessing significant expertise in all areas of e-Discovery, from case assessment and training to project completion, Lauren oversees complex document review projects. She has worked for many private sector clients on high-volume, time-sensitive civil litigation files, as well as CRA requests, Competition Bureau supplementary information requests, Freedom of Information requests and investigatory matters. She also has experience providing advice to organizations with respect to information governance requirements.

Lauren is a member of the Ontario Bar Association and the Advocates' Society. She received her LLB from the Queen's University Faculty of Law in 2005 and was called to the Ontario bar in 2006.

In her free time, Lauren enjoys outdoor activities such as swimming, hiking, and camping.
