Tax Planning

Protect your tax interests in the context of large M&As, corporate reorganizations and complex tax structuring issues. That's what Fred Purkey will do for you.

Fred is called in on a great number of files, mostly large transactions with a lot of moving parts, employing a practical approach to solving complex problems and making timely decisions to eliminate potential delays. A partner in our National Tax Group, located in Montréal, Fred advises on the income tax issues relating to mergers and acquisitions of public and private corporations, corporate reorganizations, real estate investment trusts, pension funds, financing structures and private equity funds.

Reliable and creative

Fred acts for large commercial real estate entities with holdings in Québec and elsewhere in Canada, as well as for international corporations doing business in Canada. He also advises Canadian companies on goods and services tax matters, and employee compensation arrangements.

Using his extensive experience in large transactions, Fred remains on top of the deal, acting as the central repository of the knowledge from the tax perspective all the way through the transaction. Clients can rely on his proven ability to solve tax issues with creative solutions to ensure a successful transaction.

Representative experience

- Represented Noverco Inc. in its C$1.2 billion agreement to acquire Valener Inc.
- Acted as counsel to an investment group in the acquisition of a major Canadian sports franchise. This transaction, which also included the team's playing facility and a large independent events promotion company, is considered to be among the most significant acquisitions ever completed in professional sports in North America.
- Represented a major Canadian Real Estate Investment Trust in its $900-million unsolicited acquisition of another Real Estate Investment Trust.
- Represented a prominent real estate group in its negotiated takeover bid of a large Real Estate Investment Trust for approximately $119 million. The transaction culminated in the client's graduation from the TSX Venture Exchange to the Toronto Stock Exchange. This bid defeated an unsolicited takeover bid from one of the client's key competitors.
- Represented a prominent real estate group in its tax-deferred conversion from a mutual fund corporation into a real estate investment trust, and its internal reorganization to simplify its structure.
