

Tony Zhou

Articling Student

Toronto

tzhou@mccarthy.ca

t. +1 416-601-8032

Law School

University of Toronto

Tony received his JD from the University of Toronto. As a student in the combined program, he also graduated with the MBA degree from the Rotman School of Management as a Bergman Scholar. Tony holds a BA from McGill University, where he focused his studies in Sociology and Social Studies of Medicine.

At law school, Tony took on executive roles at the Student Law Society, Business Law Society and Runnymede Society. His exchange semester in Amsterdam introduced him to the EU competition regime and fueled his interest in business and competition law practices. Tony currently serves as the Treasurer on the Board of Directors at his condo building in Toronto.

Before joining McCarthy Tétrault as an articling student, Tony worked for Apple and Club Monaco in customer-facing roles. He served as a stakeholder engagement and communications assistant at a start-up firm in the mining, oil and gas extraction industry. Internationally, Tony also completed an internship at AllBright Law Offices in Shanghai, China.

In his spare time, Tony enjoys traveling, trying new restaurants and popular culture.

Recent Insights

- New York State Department of Financial Services Issues Report on Online Lending
August 10, 2018
- US Developments in Digital Identity: The Better Identity Coalition Issues Report on Improving Digital Identity In US
August 07, 2018