Gong Ming is an associate in the firm's Litigation Group in Montréal. His practice focuses primarily on civil and commercial litigation and professional liability.

Gong Ming acts for companies in product liability class actions, commercial lease disputes, access to information cases, arbitration files, safeguard order applications and challenges. He also represents physicians before various administrative, disciplinary and civil instances.

Gong Ming is actively involved in various diversity and inclusion initiatives. He co-authors articles for our firm's Spotlight Can-Asia blog, participated in the founding of the Federation of Asian Canadian Lawyers of Quebec and is involved in the Young Chinese Professional Association (YCPA).

Gong Ming obtained his bachelor's degree in law (LL.B.) in 2019 from the Université de Montréal and his academic performance earned him a mention on the faculty's honor roll. In 2018-2019, his peers elected him president of the Board of Directors of the Law Students' Association. In addition, Gong Ming completed an internship at a major law firm in Beijing and attended a summer program on the Chinese legal system at China University of Political Science and Law.

Gong Ming was called to the Québec Bar in 2020. He speaks French, English and Mandarin.
