

Amélie Boucher

Articling Student

Montréal

aboucher@mccarthy.ca

t. +1 514-397-4291

Law School

Université de Sherbrooke

Amélie completed her Bachelor's degree in civil law (LL.B.) within the cooperative program at Université de Sherbrooke.

She previously obtained a diploma of college studies at Cégep de Trois-Rivières and a certificate in business administration from Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières. Amélie was involved with the learning and language resources centre at her college and continued her experience by acting as tutor at the Université de Sherbrooke learning centre.

She stood out during the various stages of her academic career by obtaining a scholarship of excellence at the end of her college studies and scholarships of excellence at admission during her university career. She received an award of excellence in the faculty list for each of her three years in law. In 2020, she won the Prix de la justice participative du Barreau du Québec.

During her free time, Amélie enjoys playing soccer, a sport she has practised in the elite league. She is also passionate about outdoor activities and running.

Recent Insights

- Restructuring of Investissement Quebec Aimed to Increase Foreign Investment in Quebec and Increase Number of SMEs

March 12, 2020