Vincent Laurin is an partner in our Business Law Group. His practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, and securities law.

He regularly represents a range of businesses in the context of the preparation and negotiation of share and asset purchase agreements, shareholder agreements and other commercial agreements.

Prior to joining McCarthy Tétrault, Vincent practised with a local law firm in Kuwait, where he advised clients in the banking industry and oil and gas sector, in particular with regard to multiple files involving mergers and acquisitions, and debt issuance on international debt issuance market. Before working in Kuwait, Vincent acted as counsel for the legal department of a multinational based in Montréal, whose shares are traded on the New York and Toronto stock exchanges, and as a lawyer for another national Canadian law firm in Montréal.

Since January 2019, Vincent has sat on the board of directors of the Fondation du centre de réadaptation en dépendance de Montréal.

Vincent earned a Bachelor of Civil Law from Université de Sherbrooke (2012) and was called to the Québec Bar in 2013.
