Claire Lehan is a partner in our Business Law Group in Toronto. Her core practice involves advising on public and private mergers & acquisitions and capital markets, with a specific focus on the mining and natural resource sectors. She also regularly provides advice on various matters related to ongoing securities law requirements and corporate governance matters.

Claire is one of the most professional lawyers I've had the pleasure of working with... She is strong for her commercial vision and awareness, and very strong for her client service and general level of service, and level of sophistication.

Claire has experience on a broad range of M&A and corporate financing transactions involving TSX, TSXV and CSE listed issuers, including:

- Acting for Rio Tinto on its US$2.7 billion all cash insider acquisition of TSX/NYSE-listed Turquoise Hill Resources which operates the Oyu Tolgoi copper and gold mine in Mongolia
- Acting for Wyloo Metals on its C$615 million all cash insider acquisition of, and takeover battle with BHP over, TSXV-listed Noront Resources, which owns several major nickel and chromite discoveries in Ontario's Ring of Fire
- Acting for Newcrest Mining on its $3.5B acquisition of TSX/NYSE-listed Pretium Resources Inc. which operates the Brucejack gold mine in British Columbia
- Acting for Evolution Mining on its acquisition of TSX-listed Battle North Gold Corp.
- Acting for Altius Renewable Royalties Corp. on its $100 million initial public offering and concurrent TSX listing via TSX Sandbox
- Acting for Endeavour Mining on its C$2.44 billion all-stock acquisition of TSX-listed Teranga Gold Corporation which operates the Sabodala-Massawa and Wahgnion gold mines in West Africa
