Julia Hervish is a U.S. immigration paralegal, and is based in our Vancouver office. She assists clients with both temporary and permanent relocation matters, specializing in O, L and TN applications. Working in the field of immigration law since 2011, Julia has extensive experience in both U.S. and Canadian immigration.

Julia's academic background in creative writing and foreign languages supports her interest in legal drafting, in particular, employer support letters and attorney briefs. She is fluent in English and French.
