Law School

Dalhousie University

Abby received her Juris Doctor from the Schulich School of Law at Dalhousie University. She spent her final term at the Dalhousie Legal Aid Clinic where she worked on files ranging from youth criminal justice to human rights in the healthcare system. During law school, Abby served on the Dalhousie Student Union Judicial Board and was a member of the law school Admissions Committee.

Prior to law school, Abby worked as the human resources coordinator for a community health services society in Vancouver. She holds a Bachelor of Commerce from the Sauder School of Business at the University of British Columbia.

Abby enjoys skiing, getting outside, and keeping houseplants alive.
