Law School

Queen's University

Daniel is completing his J.D. at Queen's University, Faculty of Law. Prior to law school, Daniel obtained a Bachelor of Environmental Studies in Urban Planning from the University of Waterloo with a specialization in Land Development. Before his time at McCarthy Tétrault, Daniel had experience working in municipal government, a full-service law firm, and a boutique land development and litigation law firm in Toronto.

While in Queen's Law, Daniel has volunteered as an Executive member of the Queen's Technology Law Club, and as a coordinator for the Queen's Law intramural hockey team. During his first and second years at law school, Daniel was also active as a member of the Queen's Law Cancer Society in raising money for the Movember Foundation and performing in four dance numbers on stage as part of the Cabaret for a Cure fundraiser. In his second year of studies, Daniel was the recipient of the course prize in Evidence, Communications Law, Environmental Protection Law, and Advanced Issues in Contract Law.

In the fall, Daniel will be studying at the University of Groningen in Groningen, Netherlands.

Outside of the office, Daniel enjoys travelling, cycling, live music, cheering on the Toronto Maple Leafs, and working on his amateur stand-up routine.
