

Lama Kahiel

Articling Student

Toronto

lkahiel@mccarthy.ca

t. 416-601-7630

Law School

Queen's University

Lama completed her J.D. at Queen's University. Lama holds a Bachelor of Commerce with a specialization in Management from the University of Ottawa. Prior to law school, Lama worked as a management consultant to the public sector, aiding in policy implementation and improvements.

At Queen's Law, Lama volunteered as a student caseworker with the Queen's Business Law Clinic during the school year. Lama has also been actively involved with Pro Bono Students Canada, and worked closely with local organizations in providing legal information to Canadian newcomers.

During the fall semester of her final year, she studied law at Koç University in Istanbul, Turkey.

Outside of work, Lama enjoys running, going to concerts, and cheering on the Toronto Raptors.

Recent Insights

- The Federal Government has Released its Long-Awaited Hydrogen Strategy: Here's What's in Store for Industry
December 21, 2020
- The CBSA Sunsets the Interim Turnaround Policy For Highway Carriers
November 12, 2020
- The CBSA Sunsets the Interim Turnaround Policy For Highway Carriers
November 11, 2020