

Adrienne Desmarais-Fyfe is an associate in our Litigation Group in Montreal. Her practice focuses on corporate commercial litigation, class actions and professional liability.

Adrienne received the Lieutenant Governor's Youth Medal, awarded for her sustained voluntary action and for her positive influence within the community. Her dedication to her student community also earned her the Leadership and Sociability Award from her peers.

Adrienne founded and then chaired her faculty's Civil Law Practice Committee. In addition, she organized several social activities to promote diversity and inclusion. She coordinated the Law Mentoring Center and was a speaker and mentor for her university's Professional Development Center and Business Law Committee. As a student representative of the École du Barreau, she also participated in various webinars to help her future colleagues prepare for their exams.

Adrienne studied cinema and obtained a certificate in Religious Studies before completing her law degree (LLB) at Université du Québec à Montréal in 2020. Adrienne was called to the Quebec Bar in 2021.
