Law School

McGill University

Bianca graduated from McGill University's Faculty of Law in the winter of 2021 with a minor in Literary Studies and Practice. Her peers have elected her Valedictorian.

In an effort to strengthen her leadership skills, Bianca has been active with the McGill Law Students' Association. She served as the First Year Representative and Vice-President Academic for two years. In her third year, she clerked for the Chief Justice of the Tribunal administratif du Québec and participated in the Pierre-Basile-Mignault Moot Court Competition. With her teammate, they won the Jean Martineau Cup, awarded to the winning pair in the final round. Bianca is an amateur of oral advocacy and has been a member of the McGill French Debating Club, where she has been a novice champion and semi-finalist on two occasions.

In her spare time, Bianca is passionate about plays, politics, dance and literature. She is a member of the Espace de la Diversité, an organization that fights exclusion and discrimination through literature. Bianca has also been involved with the Clinique Juridique itinérante and the Clinique juridique de Saint-Michel.
