Bianca is currently completing a Bachelor of Civil Law and Bachelor of Laws at McGill University's Faculty of Law. She will receive her degree in 2020. Since her first year, she has been actively involved with the McGill Law Students' Association and is currently VP Academic, serving as an intermediary between students and the faculty. She was elected for a first term in April 2018, and for a second term in April 2019. In addition to serving as a student representative, Bianca works with the Mobile Legal Clinic, an organization that provides legal services to the homeless. She has been interested in politics since high school, when she took part in her first model parliament.

Bianca enjoys getting out of her comfort zone and taking on new challenges, which is what led her to go to Ottawa for a summer to work for a Member of Parliament. She is interested in the intersection between law and politics, which is reflected in her combined studies of both fields.

Prior to university, Bianca received a college diploma in social sciences with a specialization in justice and society from Collège de Maisonneuve. In her spare time, she enjoys seeing plays, dancing, debating and reading.
