Benjamin Rivard is an associate in our Business Law Group in Montreal. His practice focuses on corporate law and securities law, including public and private mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance and continuous disclosure obligations.

He is actively involved in the legal community, notably as member of the Legal Futures Sub-Committee of the Canadian Bar Association and as a member of the board of directors of the Quebec Branch of the CBA from 2019 to 2021. He is also on the board of directors of the Fondation du collège Regina Assumpta.

Benjamin obtained degrees in both civil law and common law from McGill University. He also completed a short graduate program in business administration at Université de Sherbrooke. During his studies, he was the Editor-In-Chief of the McGill Journal of Law and Health.

Benjamin was called to the Quebec Bar in 2021 and he is a member of the Young Bar Association of Montreal.
