Rachel Wasserman is an associate in our Business Law Group. Her practice focuses mainly on mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance, corporate governance, and general commercial and corporate matters. Rachel has experience contributing to mandates in various industries including consumer products, cannabis and waste management.

In 2019, Rachel was seconded as acting general counsel to a publicly traded cannabis company, during which time she worked side-by-side with the executive team on a variety of transactional, governance and legal matters.

Rachel received her JD from the Faculty of Law at Queen's University. She previously obtained her Bachelor of Business Administration (Honours) from Wilfrid Laurier University. Prior to law school, Rachel worked for two leading global consumer goods manufacturers in various sales and marketing strategy roles.

She is a member of the Law Society of Upper Canada, Canadian Bar Association and Ontario Bar Association.
