Investment

Erin Keogh is an associate in our Competition/Antitrust and Foreign Investment Group. She maintains a general practice encompassing all aspects of competition law, including mergers and acquisitions, marketing and distribution practices, abuse of dominance, criminal and civil investigations, and compliance matters.

Erin completed her JD at Queen's Law, where she was a contributor to Pro Bono Radio, acted as Finance Executive to the Animal Law Club, and represented Queen's Law as an oralist in the Wilson Moot. She received a Joint Honours BA and BSSc in History and Political Science at the University of Ottawa, graduating Magna Cum Laude.

Erin completed her summers and articles at a leading national firm. During her articles, she primarily worked in competition/antitrust and broader regulatory areas.

Erin was called to the Ontario Bar in 2019.
