Christina Grimes is an associate in the firm's Calgary office and a member of our Financial Services Group. She acts as counsel to lenders, borrowers and administrative agents in all aspects of syndicated and bilateral financings including general corporate financings, real-estate and acquisition financings, first and second lien financings, and secured and unsecured debt financings. Christina also provides advice in connection with Canadian aspects of international financings.

Prior to joining us, Christina was an associate in the Calgary and Ottawa offices of an international law firm primarily advising clients with respect to structuring and facilitating asset purchase and share purchase transactions, planning for and implementing growth (or exit) strategies through M&A transactions, and conducting capital raising transactions.

She has been admitted to both the Ontario and Alberta bars.
