Andre Yip Hoi is the Director of our e-Discovery Project Manager group in our Toronto office. He has over 24 years of experience as an e-Discovery Project Manager and Litigation Law Clerk, including working with numerous e-Discovery and document review platforms and managing complex, high-volume e-Discovery projects.

As e-Discovery Project Manager, Andre is responsible for managing the complete e-Discovery process - from identification, preservation and collection, complex document reviews and production. This includes preparing estimates, budget tracking, analysis of data collections prior to review and management of review teams ranging in size from 5 to 60 document review lawyers. He thrives on exceeding client expectations and ensuring that all projects are completed on time and on budget. Regularly attending conferences and education events in the space, Andre is committed to staying up to date with continually evolving e-Discovery software and trends.

Andre obtained his Bachelor of Arts at York University and is currently completing his Project Management Professional certification at the Project Management Institute in Toronto. He has a certificate in e-Discovery, Records Management, Information Governance and Privacy from Osgoode Hall Law School and an Ivey Emerging Leaders certificate from the Ivey Academy at Ivey Business School.

In his spare time, Andre enjoys playing sports, Texas Hold'em Poker and attending plays, concerts, museums, and art exhibits.
