Rebecca Ferguson is an Associate in our Business Law Group in Vancouver. She maintains a general corporate law practice.

Rebecca received her J.D. degree from the University of Ottawa, Faculty of Law. Prior to law school, she graduated from the University of British Columbia with a Bachelor of Education and a Bachelor of Arts in History. After graduating, Rebecca taught gifted children in British Columbia for four years, serving as a liaison between the school district, individual schools, and families.

At law school, Rebecca was a member of the Tenant Division of the University of Ottawa Community Legal Clinic, where she assisted clients with residential tenancy matters. She then became a Division Leader at the same clinic and mentored incoming students. Following her time there, Rebecca received the Greenspon Granger Hill Award for her commitment to the clinic. In her final year of law school, Rebecca received a course prize for the highest standing in her Trial Advocacy course.

Rebecca was called to the Ontario Bar in 2022 and British Columbia in 2023 after summering and articling at the firm. She is a member of the Law Society of British Columbia and the Law Society of Ontario.
