Isabelle Chouinard is an associate in the Business Law Group in Québec City. Her practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, corporate law and project and corporate financing.

Isabelle has been involved in cases where the firm has been called upon to represent companies from Québec and Canada, both public and private, in connection with mergers and acquisitions, project financing and complex transactions.

Isabelle received her Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) from Laval University in 2020 and is a member of the Faculty of Law's Honour Roll for the year 2020-2021. During her university studies, she interned with two judges at the Superior Court of Québec, participated in the Canadian Laskin Moot Court Competition and was involved as Vice-President of External Affairs for the Club droit et affaires de l'Université Laval (CDAUL). She also worked as a research assistant for Professor Ivan Tchotourian.

Isabelle was admitted to the Québec Bar in 2021. She is a member of the Québec Bar and the Canadian Bar Association.
