Litigation and Dispute Resolution

Greer is an associate in our Litigation Group in Toronto. She maintains a general litigation practice.

Greer graduated from Western University, Faculty of Law in 2022. Greer was extensively involved in extra-curriculars during her time in law school and was awarded the Michael Allen Harte memorial award for her outstanding contributions to student life. During this time, Greer gained hands on advocacy experience working as a Caseworker at Western Law's Family Law Clinic and volunteering with Pro Bono Student's Canada's Single Women in Motherhood project. Greer also worked as a Research Assistant with a focus on Indigenous law and Indigenous self-governance and as a Teaching Assistant for Western Law's first-year Property Law course.

Before pursuing law, Greer lived in Sydney, Australia, and worked in marketing for one of the world's largest real estate managers. She also gained extensive professional experience across a variety of industries, including hospitality, not-for-profit, and financial services. In 2018, Greer graduated from Western University with an honours bachelor's degree in Business Management and Organizational Studies, specializing in Consumer Behaviour and minoring in Criminology.

Greer was called to the Ontario bar in 2023 and is a member of the Law Society of Ontario.
