A trusted advisor in the tech M&A space, Robert provides practical and innovative solutions to support clients' success

Robert Anton is a partner in our Business Law Group in Toronto. A trusted advisor strongly invested in our clients' success, Robert has a practice focused in the areas of M&A and capital markets, with an emphasis on tech M&A.

Robert has extensive cross-border experience in advising public and venture-backed companies on a wide range of matters, including buy-side and sell-side M&A transactions including stock and asset deals, special purpose acquisition company deals and acquihires. His practice includes a mix of private and public M&A, private equity transactions, corporate finance and general securities law matters.

Leveraging his business and tech-sector savvy, Robert helps drive complex, transformational transactions, providing innovative and practical solutions to clients in the tech M&A space. He also contributes to U.S. market initiatives, offering significant value to clients through his insight and expertise on M&A activity on both sides of the border. He understands the complexities of cross-border transactions and offers strategic guidance for U.S. companies doing business in Canada.

His recent experience includes:

- Advising an online commerce and content platform, in its sale to an Internet marketing and technology company.
- Advising a cloud-based video editing company, in its sale to a private equity firm.
- Advising an in-demand financial management and human capital management software vendor various transactions including in connection with its acquisition of an online procurement platform, and its acquisition of a secure digital identity company.
- Advising a foreign exchange solutions company in its acquisition of an investment software applications development company.
