

Brandon Clarke

Senior e-Discovery Analyst

Toronto

bclarke@mt3.ca

t. 416-601-7701

Brandon Clarke is the Senior e-Discovery Analyst in our Toronto office who combines his legal background and technical skills to assist legal teams with e-Discovery matters of various complexities. □

Brandon is a licensed Paralegal whose career has been focused on e-Discovery since 2014. He is a certified Relativity Master, including a Relativity Certified Administrator, Project Management Specialist, Processing Specialist, Analytics Specialist, Review Management Specialist.

Brandon has a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Waterloo, majoring in History with a minor in Political Science. He also holds a diploma in Journalism from Sheridan College and a diploma in Paralegal Studies from Herzing College.

In his spare time, Brandon can be found riding and wrenching on motorcycles, playing hockey, playing the guitar and is an avid Formula One fan.

