Kandarp Desai

E-Discovery Analyst

Toronto

kdesai@mt3.ca

t. 416-601-7568

Kandarp Desai is a e-Discovery Analyst in our Toronto office who assists the Litigation Support team in ensuring the safe and confidential processing and transferring of electronically stored data using enterprise and e-Discovery litigation software.

Kandarp started with MT>3 in 2020.   Kandarp enjoys working with a team of experts to solve complex tasks in electronic data management, processing, and analysis, with a focus on electronic evidence management.

Kandarp has an MSc in Digital Forensics and Cyber-crime Analysis from Staffordshire University, U.K in 2017, and completed, his B.E in Computer Engineering at Dharamsinh Desai University, India in 2013. Kandarp has completed XRY Mobile Device Forensic Certification Training from MSAB in 2016 and Autopsy Training Certificate from Basis Technology in 2020.

Kandarp is an active member of International Legal Technology Association and Sedona Conference. To satisfy his professional curiosity, he often attends live webinars and meetings related to E-Discovery -Technological advancement and current trends.

Kandarp spends his spare time travelling, listening to Bollywood music, and running.