Julien Leblanc is an associate in our tax law group in Montréal. His practice focuses on Canadian tax issues related to mergers, acquisitions, corporate reorganizations, financing and other domestic and cross-border business transactions.

Before joining McCarthy Tétrault, Julien assisted the judges of the Tax Court of Canada as a law clerk. He has previously completed his Bar internship in the tax planning and commercial law department of a boutique firm specializing in taxation.

During his studies, Julien was vice-president of the Université de Sherbrooke's Association of Master's Degree Students in Taxation and vice-president of the Tax Law Committee of the Faculty of Law of the Université de Montréal. He has also been actively involved in various projects for Pro Bono Students Canada, as well as in several other volunteer activities.

Julien obtained his bachelor of law from Université de Montréal in 2018 and is in the process of completing his master's degree in taxation at Université de Sherbrooke.

Julien was admitted to the Quebec Bar in 2019. He is a member of the Young Bar of Montréal, the Association de planification fiscale et financière and the Canadian Tax Foundation.
