Catherine Squires is an e-Discovery Paralegal in our Calgary office. She joined the firm in January 2002 and specializes in providing case management support throughout the entire lifecycle of litigation projects.

In addition to managing numerous projects over the past 20 years, Catherine worked for 15 years in the oil and gas and corporate and securities sectors. She also received training in interior design at Mount Royal University. Having a diverse background has supplemented her ability to understand a wide range of terminologies during the document review process.

Catherine has worked with a variety of e-Discovery review platforms and is a RelativityOne Certified Pro and Review Pro. She is currently working on attaining her Relativity Project Management Specialist certification.

Prior to joining the firm, she obtained her Neurolinguistic Programming practitioner certification and Masters in Reiki. In her spare time, Catherine enjoys meditation, yoga, and Pilates, as well as writing and spending time with friends. She is passionate about helping others and frequently publishes blogs that focus on improving mental, emotional, and spiritual health.
