

Dustin E. Seguin

Articling Student

Toronto

dcseguin@mccarthy.ca

t. 416-601-7636

Law School

University of Manitoba

Dustin completed his J.D. at the University of Manitoba, Faculty of Law. Prior to law school, he was employed as a military police officer (NCM) in the Canadian Armed Forces for over a decade. While serving, he obtained a Bachelor of Human Services (Police Studies) degree with honours. Before joining the military, Dustin worked as a sheriff's officer with the province of Manitoba.

Dustin is Cree on his father's side and Métis on his mother's side. He has a passion for increasing development in First Nation and Métis communities. His goal is to utilize his experience and law degree to further the economic standing of Indigenous communities throughout Canada.

In his spare time, Dustin enjoys imagining he could have 'made it' as a country singer, training in jiu-jitsu, and raising his two amazing daughters.

Recent Insights

- Government of BC Introduces First Nations Equity Financing Framework

February 27, 2024

- Power Perspectives 2024

February 14, 2024

- Summary of Canadian Indigenous Loan Guarantee Programs

February 13, 2024

- The Federal Prompt Payment for Construction Work Act in Review

February 5, 2024