Law School

University of Windsor

University of Detroit Mercy

Juliana is entering her third year in the Dual JD Program at the University of Windsor, Faculty of Law. Before law school, she obtained a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Sociology from Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Prior to joining McCarthy Tétrault, Juliana was a summer associate at TD Securities in the Global Counterparty Credit Group, where she assisted the bank with the documentation and regulatory requirements for clients, along with assisting in the onboarding of funds for various investment managers across the US, UK, and Canada.

In her free time, she enjoys spending time with her friends and family, going on walks with her dog, travelling, and cheering on her favourite Toronto sports teams (Leafs, Blue Jays and Raptors).
