Law School

University of Windsor

Ann holds a Juris Doctor from the University of Windsor, Faculty of Law (2023). Prior to law school, she obtained an Honours Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Toronto, Rotman School of Management where she specialized in Finance and Economics. During her gap year between graduating from university and entering law school, she worked as a project management intern at an engineering firm, as a legal assistant at an immigration law firm, and as a Research Assistant at the Rotman School of Management.

While in law school, Ann was the Lead Teaching Assistant for the Academic Success Program. Ann received the Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP Prize, awarded to a graduating student for achieving the highest standing in subjects falling within the corporate and commercial study of law. Ann was also the recipient of the Gowling WLG Prize in Securities Regulations.

She served as the Chair of the Students' Law Society (SLS) and as Vice-President Social Media at the Windsor Blockchain Law Club. Ann worked as a Research Assistant for the first year Legal Research and Writing Course and for various faculty members. Ann was also a dedicated mentor to 1L students in the Peer Mentorship Program.

During her first year of law school, Ann was elected as the 1L Students' Law Society representative where she advocated on behalf of the 1L class for their academic best interests. She was also an editor of the Windsor Review of Legal and Social Issues. Ann's passion for pro bono work led her to complete a placement at the Pro Bono Radio Project at Pro Bono Students Canada where she created podcast episodes to discuss access to justice issues in the Windsor-Essex community.

Outside of work, Ann enjoys traveling, writing for her food & lifestyle blog, and painting.
