Law School

University of Calgary

Mirabelle recently finished her second year of law school at the University of Calgary. Prior to law school, Mirabelle earned a BComm (with distinction) with a minor in English from the University of Calgary, interned at the Parliament of Canada, and worked at Pro Bono Law Alberta. Last year, Mirabelle worked for a federal government agency as a summer law student where she wrote memos on cross-jurisdictional legal matters and attended tribunal hearings.

Mirabelle has received numerous academic and leadership awards, including the Dean of Law Award of Excellence, McCarthy Tétrault Leadership Award, and 2022 JSD Tory Writing Award for excellence in writing and legal research. She is an avid mooter and was awarded Second Place Oralist in the 2021 McGillivray Moot.

Equity and advocacy often guide Mirabelle's extracurricular activities. During law school, she has served on the boards of the national Black Law Students' Association of Canada (BLSA Canada), UCalgary BLSA, and UCalgary Gender Equity in Law Association. Mirabelle is the 2022-2023 President of BLSA Canada.

In her spare time, Mirabelle can be found baking bread, reading short stories, and streaming Afrobeats. She is currently working on her first novel.
