Law School

McGill University

Brianna is currently completing her BCL/JD at the Faculty of Law at McGill University, where she also obtained her Bachelor's and Master's in History. During law school, she worked as the head manager for the journal Contours, a project that aims to shape the experiences of women, non-binary, and gender non-conforming people and their experiences with the law. She also worked as the VP Communications of the Privacy Law Club at McGill.

She is particularly interested in corporate governance and is planning on furthering her knowledge through the McGill Transformative Business Law Summer Academy this summer. She has previously worked as a Legal Student at an international mining corporation where she focused on corporate governance issues.

Brianna's main hobbies include biking, weightlifting, yoga, soccer, hiking, playing videogames and finding new cafés in Montréal.
