

Declan Sakuls

Summer Student At University

Vancouver

dsakuls@mccarthy.ca

Law School

University of Victoria

Declan is a second-year law student at the University of Victoria. Before law school, Declan studied Political Science at McGill University, where he was heavily involved with the McGill Outdoors Club, leading and co-ordinating several outdoor orientation weeks for incoming students. Declan also worked in the fashion industry as a fashion model, but with the onset of COVID-19 decided to launch his LSAT tutoring business.

At UVic Law, Declan enjoys learning about access to justice and prison law issues and mentoring incoming co-op students. He also spends time volunteering in the access to medicines space and tutoring students studying for the LSAT. In his second year at law school, Declan spent a co-op term working at the BC Ministry of Attorney General in the Family Policy, Legislation and Transformation Division.

In his spare time, Declan likes camping and canoeing, board games with friends, and watching basketball and hockey.