Charlotte Belliveau is the Director of Professional Resources (Alberta and British Columbia) - responsible for junior associates and all aspects of the student program for the firm's Calgary and Vancouver offices.

Prior to joining McCarthy Tétrault, Charlotte practiced as a securities lawyer with a large regional firm and served as in-house counsel for a North American-based real estate investment trust.

Charlotte completed her undergraduate degree in Political Science at the University of Alberta (2013) and her Juris Doctor at Thompson Rivers University (2017). She was called to the Alberta bar in 2018. Charlotte is a pro bono lawyer with the Refugee Sponsorship Training Program, assisting with refugee applications to reunite families abroad with their loved ones in Canada.

Outside of the office, Charlotte enjoys travelling, spending time in the mountains with her family & has her black belt in Tae Kwon Do.
