Clients look to Ben for practical, proactive, and cost-effective advice on all aspects and stages of their relationships with employees and trade unions.

Ben is a partner in the firm's Labour & Employment Group who practices in both our Toronto and Calgary offices and advises clients on Ontario and Alberta law. He also provides nationwide labour and employment advice to employers operating across Canada.

Ben represents management in a variety of issues including recruitment, hiring, performance management, employment standards, pay equity, human rights, drug and alcohol testing, disability management, occupational health and safety, workers' compensation, dismissals, privacy, collective bargaining, labour board proceedings, grievances, and labour arbitrations.

Frequently engaged to conduct workplace investigations, he also has significant experience advising on employment issues arising in mergers and acquisitions and regularly works with the firm's corporate group on transactions.

Ben helps companies operating in various industries, including oil and gas, energy, utilities, transportation, logistics, retail, hospitality, manufacturing, consumer goods, banking, financial services, communications, property management, security, insurance, technology, pharmaceuticals, cannabis, healthcare, and education. He advises both provincially and federally regulated employers and has conducted unjust dismissal hearings under the Canada Labour Code.

Demonstrating a special interest in helping clients with departing employee issues, he notably advises on non-competition, non-solicitation, and confidentiality clauses. He was the successful counsel in one of the leading cases on the enforcement of non-competition clauses - Ceridian Dayforce Corporation v. Daniel Wright and Ultimate Software, 2017 ONSC 6763.

Ben frequently appears before provincial and federal courts, as well as arbitrators and adjudicators, labour boards, and human rights tribunals, including in the following reported decisions:
