Jonathan is a personable and practical problem solver who has the unique ability and experience to understand all sides of a dispute. He achieves quick and efficient results for clients embroiled in complex disputes across a range of industries.

Jonathan is an associate with McCarthy Tetrault's Litigation Group in Toronto. Jonathan maintains a varied practice and focuses on corporate and commercial litigation, municipal and land use, professional liability, and regulatory and compliance. Jonathan has appeared before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, the Ontario Court of Appeal, the Federal Court, and the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal (formally the Ontario Municipal Board). He has also represented clients before the Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario.

Jonathan is a dynamic litigator who has acted on both sides of many types of disputes giving clients a unique perspective on legal problems. Jonathan has acted for both defendants and class plaintiffs in class action matters. He has defended regulatory charges while also having acted as a prosecutor for various Conservation Authorities regarding the prosecution of environmental offences under the Conservation Authorities Act.

As a Sessional Instructor at the University of Windsor, Jonathan helps prepare aspiring and future lawyers for successful careers by teaching them the basics of Canadian law and the legal system.

Jonathan received his law degree from Queen's University in 2016. While at Queen's Jonathan competed in Vienna, Austria for the Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot where he won a top oralist designation. Jonathan also holds an Honours Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Master of Arts from the University of Windsor.

Jonathan was called to the Ontario Bar in 2017.
