

Gabriel Rincon

Étudiant(e)
à l'université

Toronto

grincon@mccarthy.ca

t. 416-601-8052

Faculté de droit

Peter A. Allard School of Law

Gabriel is entering his final year at the Peter A. Allard School of Law at UBC. While at law school, Gabriel volunteered at the Law Students Legal Advice Program and supported first-year students as a peer tutor. Gabriel also worked as a research assistant for Professor Bruce MacDougall, contributing to the scholarship on the duty of honest performance and negligent misrepresentation.

Gabriel completed a Bachelor of Commerce at McGill University, majoring in Economics and minoring in Data Analytics. He also interned at the United Nations Commission Against Impunity in Guatemala. In the summer prior to law school, Gabriel was a research assistant on a software development project. He is currently co-authoring an academic paper with a McGill professor on the role of law firms in the venture capital market.

After his summer at the firm, Gabriel will be clerking at the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Outside of law, Gabriel is an avid NFL and NBA fan. He also enjoys trying new restaurants or learning a new recipe.

Publications récentes

- When is an arbitration hearing considered a "hearing" under Ontario arbitration legislation?
22 juin 2021
- Basel Committee Issues Guidance on Prudential Treatment of Cryptoasset Exposures
29 juin 2021
- OSFI Consultation on Prudential Treatment of Cryptoasset Exposures
06 juillet 2021
- Department of Finance Canada Seeks Feedback on Banks' External Complaints Handling System
26 juillet 2021