With her multifaceted skill set and in-house experience, Jenna provides creative and practical solutions to clients' complex business issues.

Jenna is an associate in our Business Law Group in Vancouver. She offers expertise in corporate finance, commercial, and bankruptcy and restructuring matters, and delivers strategic advice to clients in all stages of their business cycles. Jenna's in-house experience also provides her with unique insight into the client perspective and equips her to bring a practical and business-oriented approach to legal services.

Jenna has experience representing clients across a wide variety of industries, including natural resources, cannabis, technology, real estate, and financial services, with a specialized focus in mining. She acts for parties in complex and multi-jurisdictional corporate finance transactions and insolvency mandates, including lending transactions, project finance facilities, metal streaming and royalties, debt restructurings, distressed and debtor-in-possession financings, corporate reorganizations, bankruptcies, receiverships, and other matters and transactions under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act and the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act.

Prior to joining the firm, Jenna practiced at a leading Canadian national firm and as in-house legal counsel for a dual-listed (TSX/NASDAQ) public company with global operations.

Jenna holds degrees from Dalhousie University and the University of British Columbia, and she is a member of the Canadian Bar Association, the Law Society of British Columbia, and the Law Society of Ontario.
